

Please refrain from expanding Low Power FM station service in Tucson Arizona. There are many of us that rely on translator service because of the quality music options provided. We would no longer be able to receive KLOVE, which is broadcast at 100.9 via a translator service.